This trip is an opportunity for you to awaken your soul and connect to the energy of Mother Earth through unique adventures and experiences:

- Learn the details of Turquoise, how to buy it and where it comes from at the Turquoise Museum in Historic Old Town Albuquerque.
- Observe all of the traditional tribes gathered under one roof from Miss Indian World to the Indian Traders Market; witness rituals, ceremony, and celebration.
- Drive from one side of the Sacred Navajo reservation beginning in Window Rock, home of the Navajo Chief Headquarters, through to Tuba City where we will experience tribal living with rituals, traditions and sweat lodge. We will be accompanied by a gifted potter and herbal medicine woman, Deana Tso as well as Rev. Paul Ghee who will open his church to us, which includes a traditional Navajo home – “the Hogan”, where we will stay. They as well as other Navajos will share their many incredible gifts, arts & crafts.
- From the reservation we will transcend into Sedona, where you will experience the magical sounds of a flute concert with Jesse Kalu who will be our guide into a transformational Hike into the Birthing Cave as well as connect to one of Sedona’s vortexes.

Guides will be:
